

1st MEDITARCH Postgraduate Conference

in

Greek and Eastern Mediterranean Archaeology

National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

Hybrid, 18 October 2024

School of Philosophy Library Auditorium & Online

Program

<https://meditarch.arch.uoa.gr/>

<https://conferences.uoa.gr/e/meditarchcon2024>

MEDITARCH Postgraduate Conference

PROGRAM / Friday, 18 October 2024

08.30-09.00 Welcome & Introduction

Morning Session:

9.00-9.15 A Hellenistic and Roman necropolis at the upper city, Ktima, in Paphos

Margarita Kouali

9.15-9.30 Early Iron Age deathscapes: a case study of the cemeteries at Lefkandi

Pablo García Alcalde

9.30-9.45 Fields of transformation: The case of the funerary field of Knossos during the Late Minoan IIB – IIIA transition

Eleni Gourgouleti

9.45-10.00 Death and the Dead in Hellenistic Crete: the evolution of Cretan burial grounds and mortuary behavior. Goals, methodology, and expected results

Louisiane Betrancourt

10.00-10.15 Discussion

10.15-10.45 Coffee Break

10.45-11.00 What a house can tell: Exploring Tenos' countryside in Classical and Hellenistic times through the study of farmsteads

Konstantinos Pantzouris

11.00-11.15 Fortifying Grevena: Towards an understanding of the fortified sites in a region beyond the mainstream ancient Greek world

Simos Trasanis

11.15-11.30 The Role of Natural Environment in Cypriot Economic Systems: The Case of Dhiarizos and Kouris watersheds

Stratos Mavros

11.30-11.45 The Sanctuary of Rantidi Revisited

Tobias Emanuel Welz

11.45-12.00 Discussion

12.00-12.30 Lunch Break

MEDITARCH Postgraduate Conference

Afternoon Session:

12.30-12.45 New insight into the spatial arrangement and social significance of Late Cypriot households: the application of Space Syntax analysis

Chara Theotokatou

12.45-13.00 Wall-paintings in their architectural environment: unravelling socio-political strategies through sensorial impact at the palace of Pylos

Aggeliki Pefani

13.00-13.15 Seeing is Believing: Understanding Spatial Interactions and Visual Culture in Pausanias

Daniel Barrero

13.15-13.30 Discussion

13.30-13.45 Ionian type cups at Abdera: Investigating aspects of everyday life, funerary and other religious practices through the local pottery production

Barbara Ioannidou

13.45-14.00 The abecedaria inscribed on sherds and vases from the 8th to 4th century B.C. in Greece

Fryni Grevenioti

14-14.15 Dionysian Wine: An Examination of Wine as a Ritual Substance in Ancient Greece

Madeleine Voiklis

14.15-14.30 Reading, A Female Activity?: Using NKUA Museum Lekythos 9360 & Attic Vases with Literary Iconography to Understand Ancient Literacy and the Lives of Ancient Women

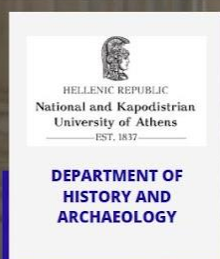

Melissa Bergoffen

14.30-14.45 The Minoan channel kiln: A technological innovation of the late bronze age in Crete

Giorgos Tasopoulos

14.45-15.00 Discussion

Small Break

MEDITARCH Postgraduate Conference

15.00-15.15 Crime and Punishment: A Comparative analysis of the Mesopotamian Legal system of the 3rd and 2nd Mill BCE

Alexe Doizé

15.15-15.30 Maritime Trade and Urban Dynamics: The Role of Perge, Phaselis, and Aspendos in Shaping Interregional Networks from the LBA to the EIA

Paraskevi Peppe

15.30-15.45 The gender of Cycladic figurines

Maria-Parthena Kevork

16.00-16.15 Ethnic Identity and Funerary Practices in Emporion and Metaponto: A Comparative Study

Alexandros Gkoumas

16.30-16.45 Tea Break

Evening Session:

16.45-17.00 Beauty, Majesty and Ruin: The implications of the Early Travellers to Asia Minor on Architecture

Berk Kurt

17.15-17.30 The ionic column base AB2407 from the Library of Hadrian

Philippia Theodoropoulou

17.30-17.45 Pottery from Basement A of Shatby Cemetery in Alexandria

Andreas Leventis

17.45-18.00 Greek Archaeological Site Management in face of Climate Change

Meilin Lyu

18.00-18.30 Discussion

Closing

